CELEBRATIONS ON 29th JULY

A note from the organisers of the celebrations on the 29th July:

Great Finborough Parish Council, your loveable chums, would like to draw your attention to the leaflet which has probably fallen out of this newsletter.

As you should be able to see, we are celebrating the wedding of the Heir to the Throne to the vivacious Lady Diana Spencer by holding a party to which you are all invited.

The celebrations start at 5.30 pm when children are invited to parade on the Green dressed as either kings or queens, whichever is deemed appropriate. Prozes will be awarded for the most felicitous costumes - whatever that means!

For 'prozes' read 'prizes' throughout.

After this contest the children will sit down to a suitably royal repast, after which, each child under 16 will receive a commemorative crown.

After les enfants, as they are known to our Gallic brethren, have stuffed themselves, there will be a free buffet and not-so-free barbeque to which everyone in the village is invited.

A steel band - all the way from exotic Peterborough - will be playing underneath the chestnut tree.

Please join us in the abandoned revelry.

(Editor's note: there are no prozes for guessing the author of the foregoing piece.)

PRIMARY SCHOOL

"My Sunny Spot" by Tracy Wilding, aged 8 years

My sunny spot is in East Bergholt, down an old dusty, sandy path where a river is. There are lots of trees to climb. It is beautiful and cool. I go there with my friend, Victoria Lloyd. We are going to build a tree house. Sometimes we have a picnic there. I like my sunny spot.
